

Town of Brighton
Special Meeting – April 29, 2010
Brighton Town Garage, 17 County Route 31

Mr. Quenell called the meeting to order at 8:04 a.m. and stated that he was seeking board authorization to sign a new rescue contract.

Mr. Quenell moved that he be granted authority to sign on behalf of the town of Brighton a two-year contract, running from May 1, 2010 to April 30, 2012, with the Saranac Lake Volunteer Rescue Squad, Inc. Mr. Leavitt seconded the motion. Discussion ensued concerning the provisions of the contract for recovering costs from patients, the process for determining annual town contract payments, the method of allocating contract payments among the client towns, and whether there would eventually be recovery of the $150,000 previously paid by the client towns for hired EMTs.

A roll call vote on the motion resulted in the following:

Ms. Wright – Aye

Mr. Tucker – Aye

Mr. Leavitt – Aye

Mr. Shrope – Aye

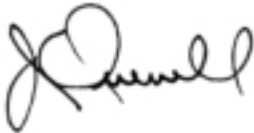

Mr. Quenell – Aye

The motion was declared carried.

There followed further discussion concerning the CSEA labor contract and the town hall project.

Ms. Wright moved adjournment, and was seconded by Mr. Leavitt. Mr. Quenell called for a vote and all voted Aye. The meeting was adjourned at 8:37 a.m.
